A Cambridge Bride.—The marriage took place on Thursday at St. John's Church, Hills Road, of Mr. Thomas Hooton, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hooton of Southport, and Miss Betty Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown, of 58, Cherry Hinton Road, Cambridge. The Rev. R. J. A. Jary conducted the service, which included the hymns, "Lead us Heavenly Father" and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." The bride, given away by her father, wore a gown of ivory moire taffeta and lace, with a full length veil, and carried a bouquet of red carnations and trailing fern. The Misses Jean and Mona Brown (sisters of the bride) were in attendance wearing dresses of blue and dusty pink cloque respectively with headdresses to match, and carrying bouquets of pink carnations. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. Eric Chandler (friend of the bride and groom). The couple are spending their honeymoon at Felixstowe.
