

Miss Chadwick (at whose house the Coal & Clothing Club operated) with Marie Doe (now Mrs Marie Burrows) at the Garden Fete in the grounds of Trumpington House, June 1953. Marie tells us that Miss Chadwick was something of a character; for example, she would never stay in church to hear a sermon in Lent -- presumably because the preachers' habit in those days was to 'put the fear of God into the congregation', and she couldn't stand the strain!
