Intercessions for Evening Prayer based on Lord's Prayer

Our Father Abba in heaven: We worship you for the glory of heaven as shown by the Angels at Shepherd's field, the love you showed in sending Jesus, the pain that you and he experienced for us in this city

Hallowed be your name: Thank you for your holiness and we pray that you will increase our holiness day by day

Your kingdom come Your will be done : we pray for our home churches that each may bring your love to our communities and we pray for the Christian community here, in Jerusalem, bless and protect them in the difficulties they face. Help us to do your will in the great and small decisions we make each day.

On Earth as in heaven: we pray for our world, so different from the world you wanted. We pray for this City with all its conflicts over millennia. We pray for the peace of Jerusalem. We pray too for Rwanda and Burundi and Syria

Give us today our daily bread: Thank you for all the good things you give us and we pray for those who struggle to find food, be it because of famine or being refugees. We pray for all those fleeing Aleppo again and refugees seeking permanent homes. Please help governments to show compassion and host communities give a welcome to those who seek shelter

Forgive us our sins. As we forgive those who sin against us: Lord help us to forgive those who have hurt or irritated us and. Forgive us for all we have done to hurt you.

Lead us not into temptation as we approach lent may we learn from you and increase our discipline

But deliver us from evil protect us oh Lord from all who would harm us, from dangers in travel, and from spiritual assaults

For the kingdom the power and the glory are yours: may we experience your power and glory as we worship you in the weeks to come

Now and for ever

Amen
