

We are your song

John FEATHERSTONE

VERSE

1. The song be-gan when the u - ni - verse res - pon - ded.
2. The song be - came the ex - pres - sion of your peo - ple
3. The day will dawn when our hearts will rise to meet you

5

Your voice rang clear as the dark - ness turned to light.
in pain and joy, in op - pres - sion and re - lease.
And round your throne, all in hea - ven with one voice

9

And since that day earth and sky have sung your glo - ry:
And we in turn have now learnt to hear the whis - per will ho - nour you, the Cre - a - tor of all beau - ty,

13

Praise with-out a word e - ver to be heard.
of your gen - tle voice cut - ting through the noise.
end - less - ly pro claim your great and glo - rious name.

18

CHORUS

And so we sing, at one with all cre - a -

21

- tion, to - ge - ther bring our wor - ship and our praise

25

— till we are lost in hum - ble a - do - ra - tion.

30

To you we be - long for we are your song.
